

European Sociological Association

ΕΛΛΗΝΙΚΗ ΔΗΜΟΚΡΑΤΙΑ
Εθνικόν και Καποδιστριακόν
Πανεπιστήμιον Αθηνών
— ΙΔΡΥΘΕΝ ΤΟ 1837 —

ΠΑΝΤΟΙ
ΧΡΗΜΑΤΟΙ
ΜΕΤΡΟΙ
ΑΝΘΡΩΠΟΣ
ΠΡΟΤΑΓΟΡΑΣ

ΕΛΛΗΝΙΚΗ ΚΟΙΝΩΝΙΟΛΟΓΙΚΗ ΕΤΑΙΡΕΙΑ (ΕΚΕ)
HELLENIC SOCIOLOGICAL SOCIETY (HSS)

ESA RN35 Sociology of Migration Midterm Conference in collaboration with the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens and the Hellenic Sociological Society

Sociology of migration after the 2015 “migrant crisis”

November 27-28, 2025, Athens

Venue: Faculty of Economic and Political Sciences
Solonos 57, 106 79, Athens, Greece

Thursday 27 November 2025
8.00-9.00	Registration
9.00-9.30 – Amphitheatre Nikos Poulantzas	Welcome addresses Vice Rector of the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, Professor Aristeidis Samitas Dean of the Faculty of Economic and Political Sciences, Professor Nikolaos Iriotis President of the Department of Sociology, Professor Manos Spyridakis President of the Hellenic Sociological Society, Professor Nikos Nagopoulos ESA RN35 Board, Ilenya Camozzi (University of Milano-Bicocca) & Linda Haapajärvi (Tampere University)
9.30-10.30 – Amphitheatre Nikos Poulantzas	1st keynote speech: Dina Vaiou, Emerita Professor, National Technical University of Athens: Women on the routes of migration in Southern Europe: encounters with changing geographical discourse/s Chair: Dimitris Parsanoglou, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens
10.30-10.45	Coffee/Tea break
10.45-12.15	Parallel session 1	Title of the panel
Panel 1 - Amphitheatre Nikos Poulantzas	Chair: Leandros Kyriakopoulos, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens Iraklis Dimitriadis (Scuola Normale Superiore): Labour Market Insertion of Unaccompanied Minors in Italy: navigating structural constraints, assuming the breadwinner role and imagining their futures	Labour (and) migration – 1

	Sara El Khoury & Apostolos G. Papadopoulos (Harokopio University of Athens): “Journeys to Precariousness”: What prospects for the Highly Educated Migrants in the Greek Labour Market? Margit Fauser & Katrin Menke (Ruhr-University Bochum): Refugees and the transformations of the migrant labour regime: insights from Germany Theodoros Fouskas (University of West Attica): Sociological perspectives on work conditions, health disparities and quality of life of Pakistani street vendors in Athens
Panel 2 – Room 15	Chair: Valia Aranitou, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens Angelo Tramountanis (National Centre for Social Research – EKKE): The Digital Transformation of EU Border Controls: Leveraging Information Systems and Artificial Intelligence (AI) for Surveillance and Control Géraldine Vernerey-Kopp (University of Lausanne – UNIL): Informal Hosting and Intimate Borders: Being Less Deportable, Being More Controlled Ségolène Bulot (University of Cologne): Political norms, artistic norms: comparative issues and dynamics of artist-run spaces for migrant artists in France and Germany	Dealing with borders & control
Panel 3 – Room Chatzidaki	Chair: Linda Haapajärvi, Tampere University Ariadni Polychroniou (National and Kapodistrian University of Athens): Reconceptualizing the refugee crisis in terms of a transnational socio-structural injustice Katerina Kostopoulou & Antonis Gardikiotis (Aristotle University of Thessaloniki): No Country for Human Rights: Refugees and the Rhetoric of Dehumanization	Theorising migration after 2015 – 1

	Giannis Gkolfinopoulos (Panteion University of Social and Political Sciences): "Migrant/refugee crisis" 2015-2016, ten years after: Migration control and securitized labour in Greece Michalis Chatzikonstantinou, Dimitra Mareta & Michalis Tastsoglou (National and Kapodistrian University of Athens): Race in the mantle of religion: Lessons from the Greek case
Panel 4 – Room Politou	Chair: Olga Lafazani, Humboldt University of Berlin Amir Azaiza (Université Paris 1 Panthéon Sorbonne): The Geopolitics of Migration and Sport: A European Perspective Santa Barone-Upeniece (University of Latvia): Why Rich Regions Get Richer: Baltic Migration Patterns Since 2015 Eleftheria (Elith) Koutsoumpa (Université Sorbonne Paris Nord – USPN): Disenchantment from the "European Dream"? Political (re)socialization in the Greek hotspots, 2016-2021 Matthias Retel (Catholic University of Louvain, Belgium): From crisis to crisis: climate change, migration, and the securitisation of the European imaginary	Early-stage researchers' workshop – 1: Migration in Europe at the aftermath of the 2015 crisis
Panel 5 – Room Kalliga	Chair: Vassiliki Papadopoulou, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens Bilgin Ayata (University of Graz): Elastic Borders and the Knowledge Politics of EU Migration Governance since 2015 Greta Albertari (Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam): De facto detention and bureaucratic opacity at the EU external borders: the Pantelleria hotspot and the codification of unlawful practices	The political construction of borders and its governance in Southern Europe

	Fiammetta Fanizza & Fiorella Spallone (University of Foggia): The space - frontier in the South of Italy: the geography of segregation in the transition of rural suburbs Myrsini Dogani & Athanasios N. Samaras (University of Piraeus): Instrumentalizing Fear Argumentation: Migration Narratives in Greek Parliamentary Debates on the Bailout Memoranda
Panel 6 – Room 12	Chair: Rosa Gatti, University of Naples Federico II Anna Facchetti & Alessia Rambelli (Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore, Milan): Empowering migrants through active citizenship: a qualitative inquiry into participation and social integration Michela Franceschelli (UCL Social Research Institute): Citizenship and Its Betrayal: A Case Study of Black Italian Migrants in Europe Francesca Massineo & Stella Santos (Sapienza University of Rome): Dual Citizenship, Ancestry, and the Racialized Politics of Inclusion in Italy	Migration & citizenship
12.15-13.00	Lunch break
13.00-15.00	Parallel session 2	Title of the panel
Panel 7 – Room Chatzidaki	Chair: Nikos Nagopoulos, University of the Aegean, Hellenic Sociological Society Ilenya Camozzi (University of Milan Bicocca), Ivan Fellini (University of Milan Bicocca) & Rosa Gatti (University of Naples Federico II): The Rise and Institutionalization of Sociology of Migration in Italy: Knowledge Production and Disciplinary Challenges Ipek Demir (University of Leeds): The 2015-2016 Migration “Crisis” and Methodological Amnesia	Knowledge production on migration

	Linda Haapajärvi (Tampere University) & Lena Näre (University of Helsinki): Securitization and the Ebb of the Human Rights Perspective in Post-2015 Finland Elisabeth Scheibelhofer & Martina Kanovich (University of Vienna): Graded Whiteness and Epistemic Borders: Anti-Eastern European Racism and the Politics of Knowledge Production in Migration Sociology Andrea Calabretta (University of Padua): Time to De-migrantise Research on the Descendants of Migrants: An Analytical Framework to Overcome Ethnic Objectification in the Sociology of Migration
Panel 8 – Room 305	Chair: Haris Tsavdaroglou, University of Amsterdam George Kandylis (National Centre for Social Research, Greece), Eva Papatzani (National Centre for Social Research, Greece), Penny Koutrolidou (National Technical University of Athens), Panos Hatziprokopiou (Aristotle University of Thessaloniki) & Joris Schapendonk (Radboud University, Netherlands): Return migration infrastructures: Coercion, informalities, and the importance of absent practices. A synthesis of insights from GAPS research Zeynep S. Mencutek, Katja Mielke, Ruth Vollmer (Bonn International Centre for Conflict Studies) & Soner Barthoma (Uppsala University): Diaspora and Migrant Organisations' Engagement with Return Migration Infrastructures in Sweden and Germany Panos Hatziprokopiou (Aristotle University of Thessaloniki), George Kandylis (National Centre for Social Research, Greece), Eva Papatzani (National Centre for Social Research, Greece), Timokleia Psallidaki (National Technical University of Athens), Christina Varouxu (National Centre for Social Research, Greece) & Katerina Vezyrgianni (National Centre for Social Research, Greece): Assisted return infrastructure between voluntariness and coercion. The case of AVRR in Greece	Return migration infrastructures: Actors, activities and technologies between voluntariness and enforcement

	Ela Gokalp-Aras (Swedish Research Institute in Istanbul): Pushing beyond the borders: Unpacking pushbacks and pushforwards in Turkey's return governance
Panel 9 – Room 12	Chair: Dimitra Mareta, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens Sintorela Chamiti (University of West Attica): Unravelling the Impact of Paid Domestic Work and Care Work on the Quality of Life and Integration of Migrant Women in Greece Ioana Epure (Panteion University of Social and Political Sciences): Lifestyle Migration and the Neighborhood: Local Perspectives on The Other in Kypseli Bastien Roland (Toulouse Jean Jaurès University): The family reunification paradigm. What the implementation of family reunification under the Dublin regulation reveals about the evolution of migration management in Greece? Ilirida Musaraj (National Kapodistrian University of Athens): Navigating cultural and national belonging in the second generation of Albanian migrants in Greece Chiara Martini (University of Milan): When the "Spectacle" Is Over. Evolving Mobilities and Solidarities Along the Balkan Routes	Early-stage researchers' workshop – 2: Migration in Greece and South-Eastern Europe
Panel 10 – Room Kalliga	Chair: Ildikó Zakariás, HUN-REN Centre for Social Sciences, Budapest Inga Hajdarowicz (Researchers on the Border): Space of Violence and Struggle. Reflections on counter-mapping on the Polish-Belarusian Border	Bringing Eastern Europe into the foreground

	Liliana Harding (Tohoku University, Japan) & Ciprian Panzaru (West University of Timisoara): How Transit Countries Become Refugee Destinations: Insights from Central and Eastern Europe Kiril Sharapov (Edinburgh Napier University): Shifting Vulnerabilities and Uneven Protections: Ukrainian Refugees and the Governance of Displacement in Europe Gordana Vuksanovic (High Business School, Novi Sad, Serbia): Student protests in Serbia - a trigger for new migrations"
Panel 11 – Room Ioanna Lampiri- Dimaki	Chair: Alexandros Sakellariou, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens Nina Bacchini (Independent researcher) & Luca Daminelli (University of Genoa): Towards a new paradigm of migration: from humanitarian reason to "labourisation of refugees" Christos Bagavos (Panteion University of Social and Political Sciences): Assessing the role of migration for changes in the labour force over the "after covid-19" period: Methodological insights and contemporary evidence from the EU27 and the EU Member States Iordanis Psimmenos (Panteion University of Social and Political Sciences): Patterns of female migrant domestic workers during Crisis in Greece (2010-2019) George (Georgios) Papaioannou (Panteion University of Social and Political Sciences): Reproduction of Casual Work in Times of Crisis and Transnational Networks: The Case of Nigerian Migrants in Athens	Labour (and) migration – 2
Panel 12 – Room 9	Chair: Dimitris Parsanoglou, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens	Spatial dimensions of migratory processes

	Christina Skourti & Dimitris Parsanoglou (National Kapodistrian University of Athens): Space gentrification as Camp's replaced transformation Vasiliki Papadopoulou (National Kapodistrian University of Athens): Places are the people: typical and atypical residencies of migrants in Greece Martin Bak Jørgensen (Aalborg university): Place-Making through Radical Imaginaries Kristel May Gomez Magdaraog (University of Geneva): Spatial (Im)mobility and Kaghinawaan Among Repatriated Overseas Filipino Workers during COVID-19 Erasmus Sossich (Università Statale di Milano - Università degli Studi di Torino): The double exile: asylum, agency and citizenship between the camp system and the urban ghetto
15.15-16.45	Parallel session 3	Title of the panel
Panel 13 – Room 305	Chair: Ildikó Zakariás, HUN-REN Centre for Social Sciences, Budapest Rosa Gatti (University of Naples Federico II) & Ilenya Camozzi (University of Milano-Bicocca): Shifting Paths of Migrant Activism in Italy: Alliances, Ruptures, and Persistent Struggles Filippos Kourakis (Panteion University of Social and Political Sciences): Criminalizing Solidarity, Regulating the Enemy: Analyzing the Criminalization of Migrant Solidarity through “Enemy Under-Criminalization” in Greece Paula Merikoski & Lena Näre (University of Helsinki): Domestic labour recruitment as a solidarity response to restrictive migration policies	Spaces of struggles and resistance

Panel 14 – Room Kalliga	Chair: Konstantinos Christopoulos, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens Fuat Güülupinar (Anadolu University) & Imane Habitou (Independent researcher): Immigration and the Rise of Support for Redistribution: A German Case Study Katerina Vassilikou (Academy of Athens): New Greek migration: the case of Belgium Adam Nemeth (University of Vienna) & Yuri Kazepov (Austrian Academy of Sciences): Subjective Well-Being in Vienna: Native and Foreign-Born Perspectives in the “World’s Most Liveable City” Melisa Çelik (University of Münster): Belonging in Motion: Inter-Migrant Relations in Germany’s Evolving Migration Landscape	New migrations in Central and Western Europe
Panel 15 – Amphitheatre Paparrigopoulou	Chair: Antigoni-Alba Papakonstantinou, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, ESA RN10 “Sociology of education” Antigoni-Alba Papakonstantinou (National and Kapodistrian University of Athens) & Vertha Tsano (Secondary Education Greek Language Teacher): Identity Determination among Albanian Migrant Families in Greece Andrea Calabretta (University of Padua): Growing Up Here, Being “From Here”? The processes of inclusion and exclusion in citizenship among the descendants of Muslim migrants in Italy entering adulthood Chrysovalantis Papathanasiou (Aegean College - University of Essex), Ioannis Kamarianos (University of Ioannina) & Georgia Gouga (University of Ioannina): “Filtering Lives”: Necropolitics, the “Best Interests of the Child”, and the Selective Relocation of Unaccompanied Minors from Greece under European Migration Governance	Migration and youth

	Jiaying Lu (University of Salamanca): The transition to adulthood of the second generation of Ethnic Chinese in Madrid Georgia Sarikoudi (Aristotle University of Thessaloniki): “There is no such thing as a whole ‘home’. It’s about the urge to seek one and the necessity to find one within”. Ukrainian youth seeking refuge and home in three European cities
Panel 16 – Room K. Varvaressos (former Room 10)	Chair: Chryssa Zachou, The American College of Greece Vasiliki Kantzara (Panteion University of Social and Political Sciences): Refugee Students’ Access to Education during the Lockdown in Greece: Disentangling Exclusion Patterns and Weaving Inclusion Strategies Martina Loos (University of Applied Science for Social Work and Pedagogy, Berlin): Learning a Language of “Belonging”: Remote Emergency Teaching in Times of Crises Zafer Çelik (Ankara Yildirim Beyazit University): Harnessing Digital Tools to Support Migrant Children’s Academic Achievement and Social Inclusion Anzhela Popyk (SWPS University, Warsaw): Shifting Migration Policies and Growing Educational Inequalities in Post-2015 Poland	Migration and education
Panel 17 – Room Ioanna Lampiri-Dimaki	Chair: Apostolos Papadopoulos, Harokopio University of Athens Paraskevi-Viviane Galata (Panteion University of Social and Political Studies): Work Inequality and Relative Deprivation among Migrant Workers in Greece: Social Comparisons and Subjective Perceptions in Times of Crisis Clara Holzinger (University of Vienna): “they say we'r [...] the better foreigners” – Migrant labour hierarchies experienced by CEE migrants in Vienna	Labour (and) migration – 3

	Aris Asproulis (Panteion University of Social and Political Sciences) & Evaggelia Kalerante (University of Western Macedonia): Flexible forms of work in tourism: The “meeting” of female immigrants’ university graduates during the Greek tourist season Stefanos Athanasiou (University of West Attica), Theodoros Fouskas (University of West Attica), George Dounias (University of West Attica) & Petros Galanis (National and Kapodistrian University of Athens): Unravelling the effects of precarious, Low-status, work on the health, quality of life, and integration of migrant workers in the construction and agricultural sectors in Greece
16.45-17.00	Coffee/Tea break
17.00-18.30 – Amphitheatre Paparrigopoulou	Round Table on the transformations of the EUropean border and migration regime(s)
Participants	Chair: Michalis Spourdalakis (National and Kapodistrian University of Athens) • Eleni Spathana (Legal expert on migration and asylum, University of Paris I - Sorbonne) • Olga Lafazani (Humboldt University of Berlin, Support Network for Refugees and Migrants in Greece) • Nando Sigona (University of Birmingham, UK) • Vassilis Tsianos (HAW Kiel, Council for Migration, Germany)

Friday 28 November 2025
9.00-10.30	Parallel session 4	Title of the panel
Panel 18 – Room 12	Chair: Haris Malamidis, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens Irene Kamberidou (National and Kapodistrian University of Athens): Bridges to Understanding: Integration and inclusion through Sport	Patterns of inclusion/exclusion – 1

	Nefeli Stournara & Nefeli Romanou (National and Kapodistrian University of Athens): From Institutions to Interpersonal Bonds: Trust as a key Dimension of Migrant Integration Julie Lavayssiere (Paris 8 University): Controlled Mobility and the Making of Residential Marginalisation: Migrant Trajectories in France After 2015 Alba Angelucci & Carmine Ferrara (University of Eastern Piedmont “Amedeo Avogadro”): Inclusion Without Voice? Rethinking Migrant Participation in Small and Medium Towns in Southern Italy
Panel 19 – Room Kalliga	Chair: Dimitris Parsanoglou, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens Vassilis Tsianos (HAW Kiel): Autonomy of Migration Reloaded Jacopo Anderlini (University of Parma): Exodus and Constituent Mobility: Rethinking the Autonomy of Migration through Collective Subtraction Łukasz Moll (University of Wrocław): The Unbearable Weightiness of Gated EUrope: Contesting Infrastructures of Containment as Perverse Border Abolitionism?	The autonomy of migration in times of authoritarianism in European migration policy
Panel 20 – Room 305	Chair: Linda Haapajärvi, Tampere University Eugenia Blasetti (University of Parma), Michela Sempredon (University of Parma), Paola Bonizzoni (University of Milan) & Eleonora De Stefanis (University of Milan): Between contamination and institutionalization: voluntary relationships of care throughout and beyond crises Lola Bultel (Paris 8 University & Panteion University of Social and Political Sciences): Capacity Building: Formalizing the support for precarized migrants	Critical aspects of migration policy – 1

	Samuele Davide Molli (University of Milan): Local chauvinism: how discriminatory policies have restricted immigrants' access to territorial welfare in times of populism
Panel 21 – Room Chatzidaki	Chair: Ilenya Camozzi, University of Milano-Bicocca Georgios Kouras (Panteion University of Social and Political Sciences): Class and occupation under construction in times of crisis: Greek and migrant builders in Athens Ildikó Zakariás (HUN-REN Centre for Social Sciences, Budapest, Hungary): Skilled migrant and non-migrant workers in flexibilised welfare jobs in Austria Magda Bolzoni (Politecnico di Torino), Davide Donatiello (University of Turin) & Valentina Moiso (University of Turin): Negotiating development: Variegated migrations and socio-economic transformations in Southern Piedmont vineyards (Italy) Apostolos G. Papadopoulos (Harokopio University of Athens), Loukia-Maria Fratsea (Harokopio University of Athens), George Mavrommatis (Harokopio University of Athens), Nikolaos Metaxidis (Harokopio University of Athens) & Konstantinos Papachristopoulos (CoCreate, Athens): Platform Economy and Migrant Workers: Labour Rights, Autonomy and Algorithmic Control in the Food Delivery Sector in Greece	Labour (and) migration – 4
Panel 22 – Room Argyris Fatouros	Chair: Katerina Vassilikou, Academy of Athens Luca Daminelli & Giovanni Marena (University of Genoa): From militant ethnography to militant opacity. Critical positioning on the border between Academia and activism	Methodological challenges of migration research

	Aggeliki Yfanti (Academy of Athens): Attitudes towards immigration and their relation to political trust in the age of a pandemic: Evidence from the 2020 European Social Survey for 25 European countries Simon Wagner (Institute for Employment Research (IAB), Nuremberg & University of Erlangen-Nuremberg) & Lidwina Gundacker (Institute for Employment Research (IAB), Nuremberg & University of Bamberg): Understanding Panel Attrition Dynamics of Vulnerable Groups after a Natural Disaster: Evidence from the 2023 Earthquakes in Turkey Daniel Herda (Merrimack College): Recent Immigration and Reactive Ethnicity in Germany: A Natural Experiment Testing Causal Assumptions
10.30-10.45	Coffee/Tea break
10.45-11.45 – Room Chatzidaki	2nd keynote speech: Nando Sigona, Professor, University of Birmingham: The irregularisation of migration and the production of permanently probationary migrants in Europe Chair: Rosa Gatti, University of Naples Federico II
11.45-12.45 – Room Chatzidaki	RN35 Business Meeting
12.45-13.30	Lunch break
13.30-15.00	Parallel session 5	Title of the panel
Panel 23 – Room 305	Chair: Ioanna Tsigkanou, National Centre for Social Research, Greece Artemis Fyssa (University of Graz): From Hotspot to CCAC: Socio-political Transformations and the Restructuring of Migration Governance in Samos, Greece Costas Gousis (University of Crete): Politics of Hostility and Border Externalisation: Rethinking European Migration Governance Post-2015	Critical aspects of migration policy – 2

	Nikolas Kouloglou (University Lumière Lyon II): “Pop-up Governance” and the Dual-Step Frontier in the EU Through the Implementation of Hotspots in Greece during the 2015 “Migrant Crisis”: The Case of Chios Island
Panel 24 – Room Kalliga	Chair: Dimosthenis Daskalakis, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens Nikos Nagopoulos & Assimenia Tassou (University of the Aegean): Sociologizing Post-Crisis: Shifts in the Study of Migration in Greece, 2015–2025 Haris Tsavdaroglou (University of Amsterdam): Stasis, the catalyst of mobile commons George Mavrommatis (Harokopio University of Athens): The evolution of migration studies: What role is left to migrant agency in the newly emerging paradigm of migration infrastructures? Dimitra Mareta & Dimitris Parsanoglou (National and Kapodistrian University of Athens): Against exceptionalism: The Spanish and Greek official racist discourses examined in comparative perspective	Theorising aspects of migration after 2015 – 2
Panel 25 – Room 11	Chair: Linda Haapajärvi, Tampere University Paola Bonizzoni (University of Milan): Negotiating Boundaries: Volunteers and Professionals in the Italian Refugee Reception System Katharina Maria Wuropulos (Bergen University): Finding Shelter through Facebook?: Transnational Inequalities of Refugee Support Zeynep Aydar (University of Hildesheim): Reactive, Fragmented or both? Analyzing Germany's Post-2015 Migration Policy Responses	Formal and informal paths of refugee support
Panel 26 – Room 12	Chair: Rosa Gatti, University of Naples Federico II Alice Buonaguidi (University of Milano-Bicocca): Indoor Markets, Forward Migrations and Returns: The shifting contours of Nigerian Trafficking in Italy	Gender and migration – 1

	Yeliz Kendir Gök (Çankırı Karatekin University): Resistance in Threshold Spaces: The Everyday Struggles and Migration Aspirations of Ugandan Women Sex Workers in Istanbul Alexandros Tziolas (University of West Attica), Theodoros Fouskas (University of West Attica), Georgios Koulterakis (University of West Attica) & Evangelia Kalerante (University of Western Macedonia): An Odyssey from Odessa: Exploring the effects of precarious, low-status work on the health, quality of life, and integration of Ukrainian women in Greece Maria Papathanasiou (University of Thessaly), Dimitris Georgiadis (Panteion University of Social and Political Sciences) & Chrysovalantis Papathanasiou (Aegean College – University of Essex, Greece): Perceptions of Unaccompanied Girls on their Integration into Education and the Labor Market
Panel 27 – Room Chatzidaki	Chair: Maxime Maréchal, Université Paris Cité Ilaria Bilancetti (University of Milan-Bicocca): Transitioning through age and protections: the case of Egyptian youths in Italy Miriam Cuevas (University of Siena): Working in reception in Italy: Practices, tensions, and challenges of social work Mathilde Weibel (Ecole des Hautes Etudes en Sciences Sociales): Shifting Routes and Urban Belonging: The Evolution of the “Game” and Place-Making (2015–2025)	Early-stage researchers’ workshop – 3: Specific countries' perspectives: the case of Italy and France
Panel 28 – Room Argyris Fatouros	Chair: Nefeli Stournara, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens Eren Karaca (University of Augsburg): Policy Gaps Amid Demand: Turkish Healthcare Professionals’ Migration to Germany	Migration and health

	Kalie Kërpaçi (Aleksander Moisiu University of Durrës), Zeynep Şahin-Mencütek (Bonn International Center for Conflict and Conversion Studies) & Martin Kuka (Aleksander Moisiu University of Durrës): Licensed to care, struggling to settle: Health professional migration from Kosovo and Albania to Germany Dimosthenis Papadatos-Anagnostopoulos (Panteion University of Social and Political Sciences): Who cares for refugees' health? George Pleios & Michalis Tastsoglou (National and Kapodistrian University of Athens): A "Threat" for Public Health: Dictating Policies on Migration Via Metaphors in Media Discourse
15.00-15.15	Coffee/Tea break
15.15-16.45	Parallel session 6	Title of the panel
Panel 29 – Room Ioanna Lampiri-Dimaki	Chair: Aggeliki Yfanti, Academy of Athens Nelli Kambouri (Panteion University of Social and Political Sciences): Listening to the Sounds of Gender, Migration and Heterolingual Translation Athina Karatza (University of Crete), Andromachi Vaila Bouna (University of Western Macedonia), Aikaterini Gkountra (Shelter of Unaccompanied Minors Pentalofos) & Irene Gouma (University of Western Macedonia): Female Genital Mutilation in the Refugee Experience: A Study of the Experiences of Unaccompanied Minor Girls from Somalia Ioanna Vassilaki (Hellenic Open University), Theodoros Fouskas (University of West Attica), Dorothea Tsekoura (National and Kapodistrian University of Athens) & Apostolos Vantarakis (University of Patras): Unveiling the perinatal experiences and care of immigrant mothers in hospitals in Greece	Gender and migration – 2

Panel 30 – Room Kalliga	Chair: Alexandros Sakellariou, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens Loukia – Maria Fratsea (Harokopio University of Athens): Dreams across the Mediterranean passage: migrants’ aspirations and trajectories toward Europe Jean-Luc Richard (University of Rennes): Non-European Migrants Entering in the European Union via Greece: To Stay in the Country or to Continue Migration Journey Possibly after Hesitation or Disappointment Kalliopi Orfanaki (Democritus University of Thrace): The collective trauma of immigrant detainees through sleep images/dreams José David López Blanco (University of Bologna): The Long Shadow of Migration: Internal and International Return Trajectories and Subjective Well-Being in Later Life	Subjectivities in Migration: Traumas, Aspirations and Return Trajectories
Panel 31 – Room Chatzidaki	Chair: Vassiliki Papadopoulou, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens Olympia Kaminioti (Ministry of Social Cohesion and Family in Greece) & John Dumont (Webster University, Athens, Greece): Housing, Coaching, and Refugee Wellbeing: An Experimental Study on Integration Mechanisms in Post-2015 Greece Alicia Vogt (Institut ARI-CNRS Bayonne, Centre Marc Bloch Berlin, Institut Convergences Migrations): Inclusion of migrants through music? The programme Creative Europe and the orchestra Orpheus XXI Emily Pia (Unicaf): Transforming Narratives in Local Migration Policies	Patterns of inclusion/exclusion – 2
Panel 32 – Room 9	Chair: Ioanna Tsigkanou, National Centre for Social Research, Greece	Early-stage researchers’ workshop – 4: Gender, labour (and) migration

	Vasiliki Kakosimou (Harokopio University of Athens): Labour Precariousness of Migrants and their Status of Legality in Greece Jana Kriechbaum (City St George's, University of London): Bordering practices, Everyday Exclusion and Gendered Harms: Frontline Support for Women with Insecure Migration Status Escaping Violence in Post-Brexit Britain Aram Lee (Humboldt University, Berlin): Refugee and Asylum-Seeking Women on Bicycles — A Politicized Symbol of Integration versus Autonomous Agents Eleni Poulou (Panteion University of Social and Political Sciences): The significance of analyzing regimes of labor control within migrant labor during periods of socio-economic crisis
Panel 33 – Room 12	Chair: Linda Haapajärvi, Tampere University Samuel Uwem Umoh (Institute of Ethnology, Czech Academy of Sciences) & Pedro Valery Odior (EDUVOS, South Africa): States “talk” and “walk” on Migration Issues; The Lens of EU-Africa Pact on Migration and Asylum Katarzyna Waniek (University of Lodz): Refugees on the Polish-Belarusian border: human suffering, political games and fear-mongering Chrysovalantis Papathanasiou (Aegean College – University of Essex, Greece): Beyond Protection: A Critical Appraisal of UNHCR's Role in Forced Migration Governance	Critical aspects of migration policy – 3
17.00-17.30 – Room Chatzidaki	Closing of the conference

Organizers:Local Committee

- Olga Lafazani, Humboldt University of Berlin, Department of European Ethnology
- Haris Malamidis, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, Department of Sociology
- Dimitra Mareta, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, Department of Sociology
- Apostolos Papadopoulos, Harokopio University of Athens, Department of Geography
- Dimitris Parsanoglou, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, Department of Sociology
- Alexandros Sakellariou, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, Department of Sociology
- Manos Spyridakis, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, Department of Sociology
- Nefeli Stournara, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, Department of Sociology
- Ioanna Tsigkanou, National Centre for Social Research, Institute of Political Research
- Aggeliki Yfanti, Academy of Athens, Research Centre for Greek Society

RN 35 Board

- Ilenya Camozzi, University of Milano-Bicocca, Italy
- Rosa Gatti, Federico II University Naples, Italy
- Linda Haapajärvi, Tampere University, Finland
- Maxime Maréchal, Université Paris Cité, France
- Laura Odasso, Cergy Paris Université, EMA, Collège de France, ICMigrations, France
- Ildikó Zakariás, HUN-REN Centre for Social Sciences, Hungary

Organizing Secretariat

- Kalliopi Karagianni, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, Department of Sociology
- Ilirida Musaraj, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, Department of Sociology

Email: rn35conference2025@gmail.com