

Centre for International
Sustainable Development Law

Natural Resources Management International Legal Specialist Award 2021

is awarded to

Professor Emmanuella Doussis

The Centre for International Sustainable Development Law Annual International Legal Specialist Awards recognize the outstanding contributions of recipients to key topics in international law which contribute to the achievement of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals. Through their knowledge, professional skills and insights, recipients of the CISDL International Legal Specialist Awards demonstrate a serious, significant longstanding commitment to advancing peace, justice and sustainable development in the world.

Prof. Alexandra Harrington

Research Director, CISDL

Prof. Dr. Marie-Claire Cordonier Segger

Senior Director, CISDL